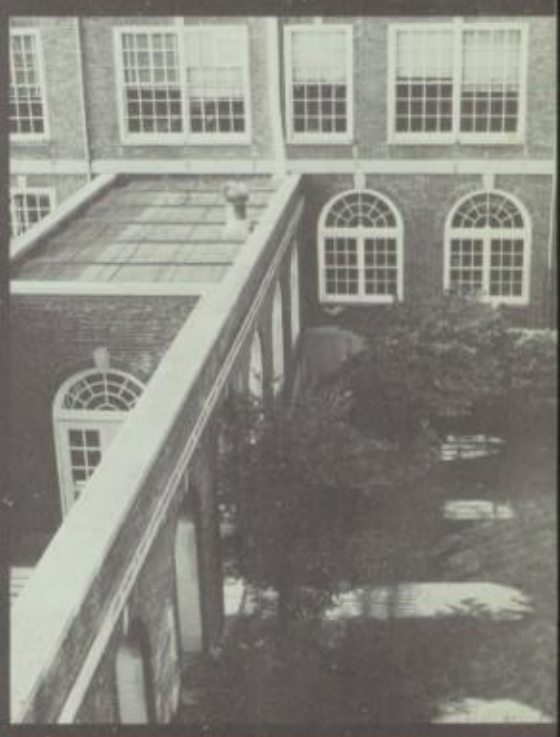
The 1962 REMEMBRANCER has borrowed from Marcel Proust its theme of "Remembrance of Things Past." Based on this idea, we have written to a number of contemporary savants, who have written us short reflections on their pasts. Read these words, for they reflect wisdom.



I have always been one who, after having been through the past, made decisions that were necessary at the time and looked forward to the future.
I sincerely hope that you will tell your young people that the future is the thing for them to look forward to and that they can only profit by what has happened in the past if they know their history.

Sincerely yours,
Harry Truman

Nothing we bestow upon our children in the way of material adventures can compare with the gift of a good education. We often speak of democratic freedom, and of course we treasure it. But basic to political freedom is personal independence; and this can exist only where the mind has been unshackled from ignorance, from dependence on the opinions of others, and from fear of disagreeable facts. Bombarded as all of us are, all day long, by subtle sloganeers seeking to convert us to their views, we sorely need minds that have been sharpened by hard intellectual work. We must know how to dig up our own facts—how to discover truth for ourselves. The person who has learned to trust only proven facts, who knows how to find and recognize truth, and who has been trained to decide all issues on the basis of truth and reason—he and he alone is a free man.

In my opinion, the purpose of schools is to help children to develop minds which are free, because no inner deficiencies or outer pressures can then bar them from truth and, through truth, from inner freedom. I believe with Francis Bacon that "It is heaven upon earth, to have a man's mind . . . turn upon the poles of truth" and this I want for our children.

LATIN COURSES

7th and 8th Grade Latin: A firm foundation in vocabulary, forms, and syntax, in preparaiton for the reading of the ninth grade. Latin II: Readings from Caesar's Gallic Wars, and the importance of the Roman civilization as it relates to our problems. There is continuous effort to build up a strong Latin vocabulary as well as to strengthen English vocabulary. Latin III: The orations of Cicero, the history of the Catilinarian Conspiracy by Sallust, and sometimes one of Cicero's essays. Cicero's orations are studied as literature. One day each week is devoted to prose. Latin IV: A little Cicero, a sizeable acquaintance with Ovid, an introduction to Vergil; Latin IV offers to mature Latin students a reading experience with some of the masters of the prose and poetry of ancient Rome. Latin V: Vergil's Aeneid is read and also selections from Horace, Catullus, and Martial. The main objective of this year is to instill an appreciation of the Aeneid as one of the greatest epics of all time. Latin V A.P.P.: Students are required to read at least five books relating to the Aeneid, as well as the regular work.

DRAMA COURSES

History of Drama: Drama from the ancient Greeks, Medieval, Renaissance, Elizabethan, and Restoration times, 18th and 19th Centuries, and the present up to 1961. Written and oral reports, research, and a source theme are required. Speech: I, II, III, and IV: All forms of Public Speaking, Dramatics, Panel Discussion, and Debate.

ART COURSES

Arts and Crafts: Experiences in the following media: sculpture, clay, enameling, mosaics, lamination, stitchery, weaving, rug-making, paper maché, designing, collages, mixed media, jewelry, leather, graphic arts, and drawing and pa ntings. 7th and 8th Grade Art: The primary emphasis on art in the lower school is to help the pupils define art as the creative act of making concrete an idea or ideal through one of the various media available. The emphasis changes as the pupils progress, stressing more the individuality of the creative process. Art A and B: A sequence of optional art course with the objectives of establishing an awareness and basic understanding of the principles of art and facility in a variety of media. The development of the use of art as a means of expressing feeling and emotions is continued. Art I, II, III, and IV: Students must be recommended for admission to this series of courses. The objectives of earlier courses are continued. The nature of a college education in art and the various professional opportunities are also covered. In the Junior and Senior year there is an opportunity for exceptional students to spend half of every day on art. This course is affiliated with the art academy.

MUSIC COURSES

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC:

Beginner's Band: Introduction to basic fundamentals of music and the playing of instruments. Junior High School Band: Fundamentals of musicianship and marching. Beginning Orchestra: Instructions taking the student through all the fundamentals of the first position on violin and viola and up to the fourth position for cello and bass. Junior High Orchestra: Advanced techniques including the third and fifth positions for violins and viola. Senior High Band: Fundamentals of musicianship carried to a more advanced level including marching and concerts. Senior Orchestra: Fundamentals of musicianship carried to a more advanced level, and orchestra playing.

VOCAL MUSIC:

Music 7: Singing, music appreciation, and some fundamentals of music. The purpose is to develop a good musical background. Music 8: Choir sings in concerts and assemblies. Same material as Music 7 but more advanced. Music 9: To aid the student in developing good singing and listening habits; provides an emotional and aesthetic release through music; aids the student in developing a repertoire of songs. Girl's Glee Club: To cultivate good vocal habits, develop a repertoire of songs, and to give concert and stage experience. A Cappella Choir: To cultivate good vocal habits through good posture, correct breathing, good diction; to provide training for college choirs and church choirs; to afford musical experiences to talented pupils; to provide concert and stage experience.

SOCIO-ECONOMICS

A survey course dealing with problems in sociology, anthropology, psychology, economics, politics, and government, plus international relations and current history.

AMERICAN HISTORY

The course is designed to acquaint the students with those features of our way of life which have contributed so deeply to the love and development of the basic freedoms.

ANCIENT AND MEDIEVAL HISTORY

Concerned with man's achievements through the ages. Objectives are the development of historical understanding and appreciation of our heritage from the past from paleolithic times to the Renaissance.

MODERN HISTORY

Deals with important people, meanings, and events of the past five hundred years.

A.P.P. MODERN HISTORY

The secondary student is introduced to college textbooks and resource materials. Formal lectures, discussions, intensive outside reading, detailed book reports, and resource papers are all facets of this course. The object is to acquaint the students with the achievements of Western Man, his heritage from the past, his responsibilities to the future.

MRS. FRANCES SANDLIN
Social Studies

SOCIAL STUDIES

A view of the geography of our nation, the coming of the Europeans to the New World and their struggles there, the birth of the New Democracy, the movement westward to settle the continent, and the civil struggle to preserve the nation.

SOCIAL STUDIES 8

A brief view of geography, the evolution of our industrial society, the coming of the United States as a world power, and America as a world leader. Eighth-graders study also a unit on vocational and educational guidance and a unit on Ohio and Cincinnati.

MATH COURSES

Math 7: Numeration, non-metic geometry, factoring, primes, rational number system, ratio, statistics, and probability. Pupils study properties of numbers and use these properties to justify and explain the successive steps in computation. A sound intuitive basis is developed for algebra and geometry courses to follow. Math 8: (a) Continues with an extension of the seventh grade material. Emphasis on the interrelation of arithmetic, algebra, and geometry. (b) For selected classes: Algebra is taught using School Mathematics Study Group material. This also gives a relationship between arithmetic, algebra, and geometry. Math I: (a) Algebra is taught up to and including the use of the quadratic formula. (b) For selected classes: Geometry is taught using School Mathematics Study Group material. It is a logical extension of their work in algebra. Math II: (a) Plane geometry is offered and included some coordinate (analytic) geometry. (b) For selected classes: The course includes not only plane, analytic, but also solid geometry. (c) Math II Adv.: For selected classes: The course is plane, solid, analytic geometry, and the algebra of Math III up to complex numbers. Math III: (a) Contains algebra through the binomial theorem, analytic geometry of straight line and triangle, and trigonometry through the right angle. (b) Math III Adv.: For selected classes: Algebra from complex numbers through the binomial theorem, trigonometry, and solid geometry. Math IV: (a) Trigonometry beyond the right triange, solid geometry, advanced algebra, leading calculus of polynomials. (b) Math IV A.P.P.: Selective group: A college level course; includes analytics of the conic section and differential and integral calculus.

PHYSICS COURSES

The study and systemization of heat, light, sound, forces, electricity, magnetism, and atoms and nuclei. The course stresses how to attack a problem as well as textbook knowledge.

CHEMISTRY COURSES

Seeks to develop the basic laws, theories, and principles of these sciences, including the more common forms of matter, and provides a sampling of observations and of fundamental chemical principles.
A.P.P.: The equivalent of freshman college chemistry. The emphasis is placed more on theory and quantitative relationships than descriptive material.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

Trains the student methodically to understand the language of industry by drawing machine parts and sheet metal developments using the techniques of a draftsman.

ARCHITECTURAL DRAWING

Can be elected after the two-year basic draft-course has been completed.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Instruction in plastics, graphic arts (including letterpress printing, bookbinding, rubber stamps, silk screen, and linoleum block), and bench woodworking including proper use of hand tools, lathe, drill press, and jig saw.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

One semester of metal work and one semester of electrical work. Simple and interesting projects are constructed giving experiences with light, heat, power ,and communications.

WOODWORK I-IV

Specialization in woodworking; basic fundamentals and use of all power equipment, training, safety procedures.

METALWORK I-IV

Continuation of previous courses, more advanced work.

ELECTRICITY I-IV

Continuation of previous courses, more advanced work.

DRIVER EDUCATION

To expose students to both city and state laws and principles of good driving, and thus ensure better and safer drivers. Class makes use of TV, films, speakers, class discussion and individual projects.

TYPING

A two-semester course offered to develop in pupils acceptable skill in typewriting for personal use. It provides an opportunity to learn to type simple business letters, manuscripts, outlines, and themes.

HOME ECONOMICS

A required course for all seventh-grade girls. It aids in the teaching and development of skills in cooking, sewing, and grooming. A more advanced course is offered for senior girls.

Each day on my journey to and from my office I pass the National Archives Building on Constitution Avenue here in Washington. Cut into the stone face of one of the entrance columns of that building are the words: "What is past is prologue." As I read them each day, I find I mentally add the balance of the quotation: "What to come in yours and my discharge." No works of mine can touch Shakespeare's superb statement of our debt to the past and our obligation to the future.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
Potter Stewart

Mrs. Levy, Advisor of Chatterbox, Char Epstein and Richard Schmidt, Editors.

The past is an old armchair in the attic, the present an ominous ticking sound, and the future anybody's guess. It was fun back there with the Rover boys, the Little Colonel, Pollyanna, and Peg-o'-my-Heart, but we don't want to be caught in the past while the Russians are shaking hands with the Martians. Let us then be up and doing.

Sincerely yours,
James Thurber

Co-Literary Editors, the Mendelsohn Clan, consult with Editor Starr while the other members gape in wonder.

I, myself, would not know what to say about looking back on one's own past. As a writer, remembrance is an elemental fact of my craft, and it is a calculated thing.

Sincerely yours,
Paddy Chayefsky

CHATTERBOX

Unless a journalist has a keen sense of the past, and a thorough knowledge of history, he will never get far in his profession. To put it another way, no one can write very perceptively about present events unless he can understand them in the perspective of the past.

DRAMA

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

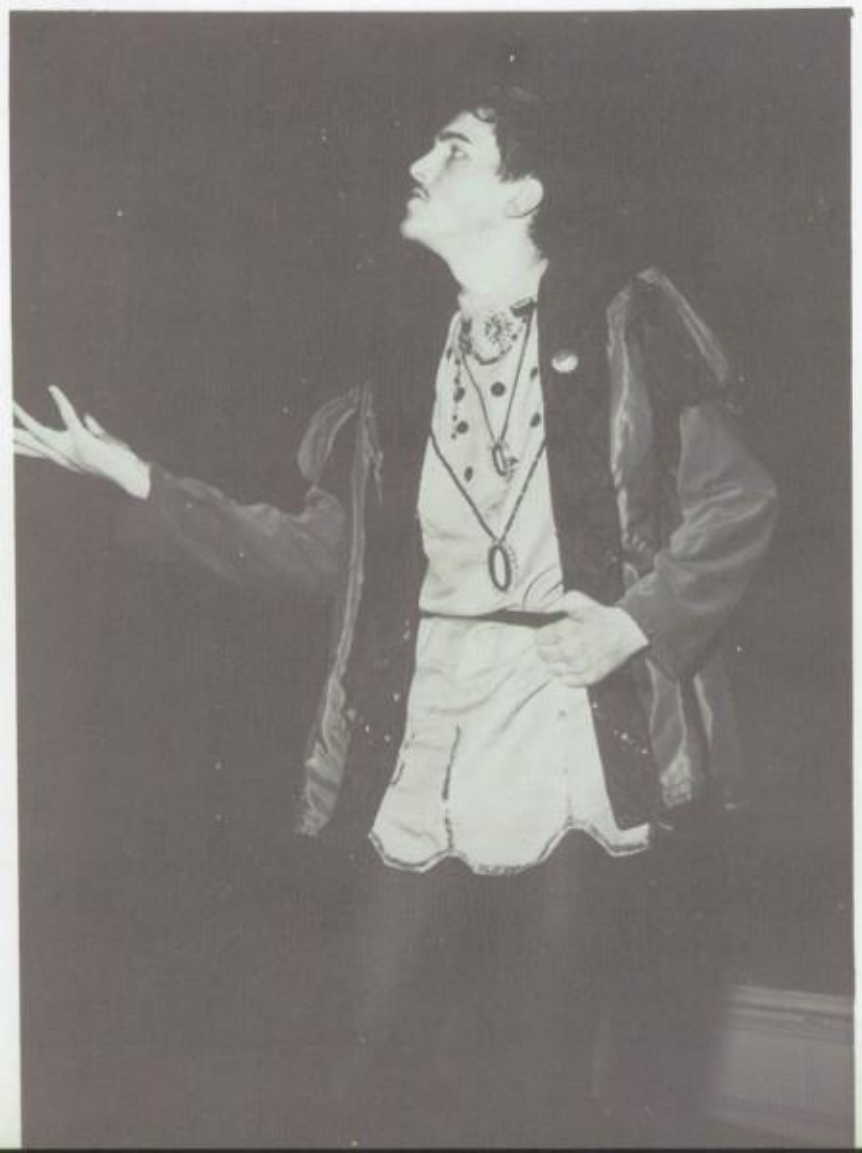
Directed by Wayne L. Gregory

Leonato . . . Ken Heuck; Don Pedro . . . Richard Schmidt; Don John . . . Lew MacLaughlin; Claudio . . . Paul Bishop; Benedick . . . Steve Bush; Antonio . . . Herb Beigel; Balthasar . . . Bert Schloss; Conrade . . . Louis Reik; Borachio . . . Larry Paterson; Friar Francis . . . John Youngs; Dogberry . . . Ron Rathbun; Verges . . . John Kyle; Hero . . . Robin Gué; Beatrice . . . Betty Stern; Margaret . . . Laurilyn Harris; Ursula . . . Beth Mitchell; Sexton . . . Bob Johnstone; Messenger . . . Dick Palmer; First Watch . . . Ed Gowdy; Second Watch . . . David Wise; Boy . . . Richard Ammons.

Mr. Gregory transforms the school into the world of Shakespeare.

"I cannot hide what I am. I must be sad when I have cause and smile at no man's jests."

"In faith, hath not the world one man but he will wear his cap with suspicion?"



Top—"Why, he is the prince's jester."

Middle—"Sigh no more, ladies, sigh no more, Men were deceivers ever . . ."

Bottom—"If you meet a thief, you may suspect him by virtue of your office."

Mrs. Levi (Linda Lane) interrupts the two lovers, Ambrose Kemper, (Nelson Schwab) and Ermengarde (Laurie Blumberg), as the housekeeper (Karen Wilson) looks on. "And who is this young man, who is so devoted to you?"

Miss Van Huisen (Barbara Mendelsohn) converses with the cook (Virginia Lambert). "That's the story of my life."

This year's Junior class play was "The Matchmaker," a farce written by Thornton Wilder. The play, directed by Mr. Wayne L. Gregory, was given on Friday night, April 27, 1962. The leads, Horace Vandergelder and Mrs. Dolly Levi, were acted by Jim Talvitie and Lynda Lane, respectively.

Mrs. Levi (Linda Lane) examines Horance Vander Gelder's (Jim Talvitie) palm. "Lord in Heaven, what a life line!"

The two waiters (Cliff Wagner and Barry Gradman) take the barber's (Charles Schwab) order.

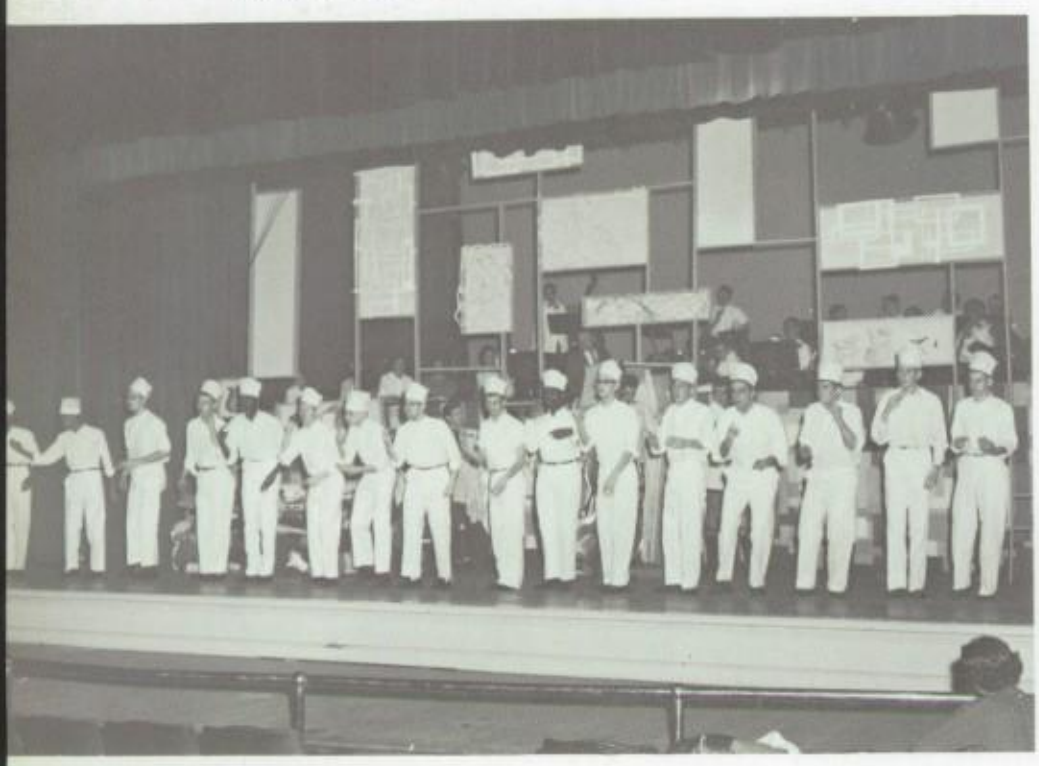
A quartet, consisting of Mrs. Malloy (JoAnne Hoffman), Cornelius Hackel (Marc Temin), Barnaby Tucker (David Bratt), and Minnie Fay (Marlyn Hirschberg), sings "Tenting Tonight at the Old Camp Ground."

Malaci Stack (John Kyle) and the cab-driver (Jack Turner) restrain Ambrose Kemper (Nelson Schwab). "Ambrose, you can't go!"

WALNUTS

"The Walnuts of '62" ably displayed the talents of many Walnut Hills students. Directed by Bernard Hertzman and advised by Edgar Loar, the show played to full houses each performance. It was marked by outstanding continuity ranging from beatniks to Romans. Scintillating performances by the ponies and singing chorus, along with unusual specialty dances and songs, rounded out one of the best "Walnuts" in years

The little bakers bake while we sleep.



"I feel a soliloquy coming on."

It's as simple as that.

"The song is over, but the melody lingers on."

Oh, oh, some of us could use a little more leg stretching.

Let's do an interpretative dance to the spirit of everything.

Half so melancholy and half so gay?

Hey, stupid, don't you know togas went out with the Romans?

63 kicks for the class of '63!

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

THE CHOIR

In regard to an incident in our past . . . we call to mind a particular time in New York when it seemed to us that the bottom fell out of everything. We were ushered into an appearance that we ourselves knew, or rather felt, we were unprepared to give. Though it was a tremendously unhappy experience, it probably was one of the biggest things to spur one on and make one realize more than ever that if you cannot do a job properly, you cannot expect high results. Be convinced yourself that you can carry it out—your harvest reflects the sowing.

With all good wishes, and with kind regards

Sincerely,
MARIAN ANDERSON

BAND

Majorette Susan Uible and Head Majorette Josie Leeds check band uniforms.

We had a professor at College of the Pacific who used to say "We are the sum of all our past." Through the years I have become aware of this truth. Nowhere do we rely upon our total experience—as an individual or a man—as much as in the act of creating—whether it be an improvisation or a jazz theme or a new composition.

Sincerely,
DAVE BRUBECK

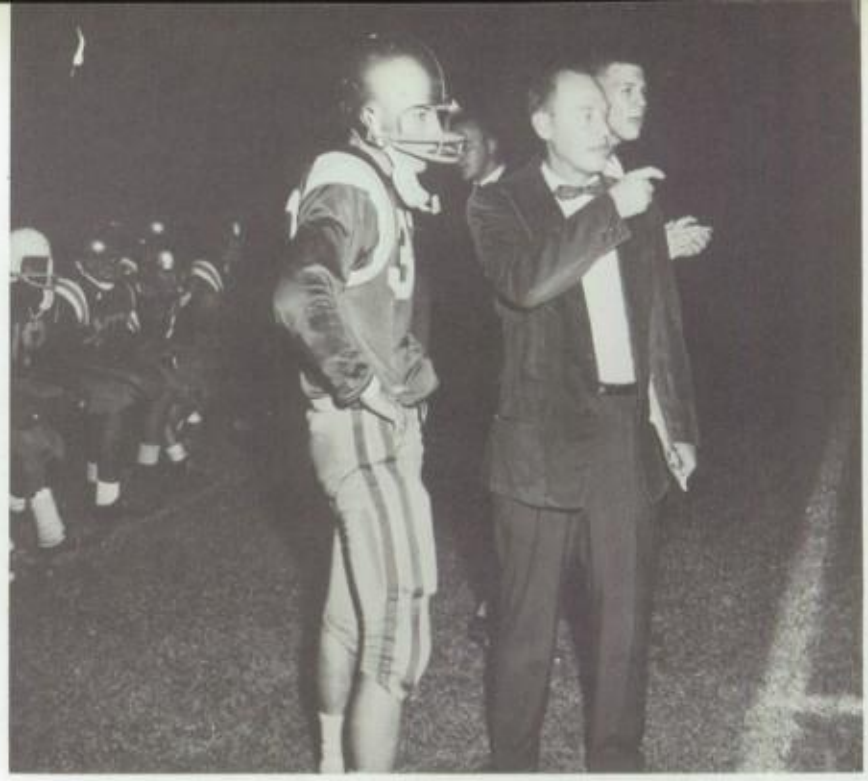
Dick Lotspeich, Fullback

Led on by cheerleaders, part of the Eagles crowd awaits the start of the Bacon game.



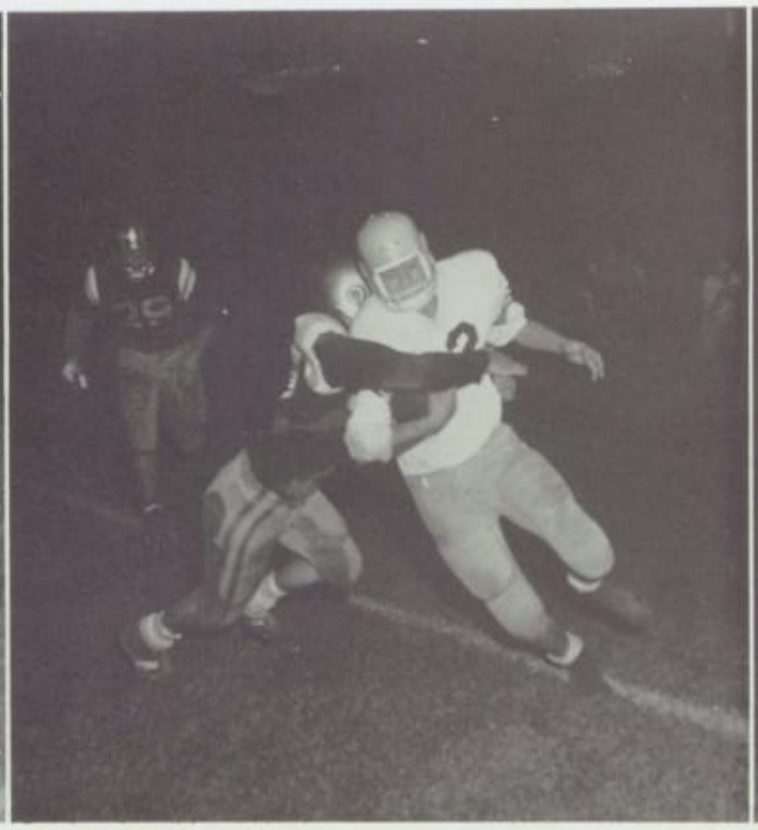
Dick Stemmer receives orders from Coach Bailey, as manager Larry Patterson regards the game with a very painful expression.

Confusion. One of the few times we allowed Bacon the upper hand.

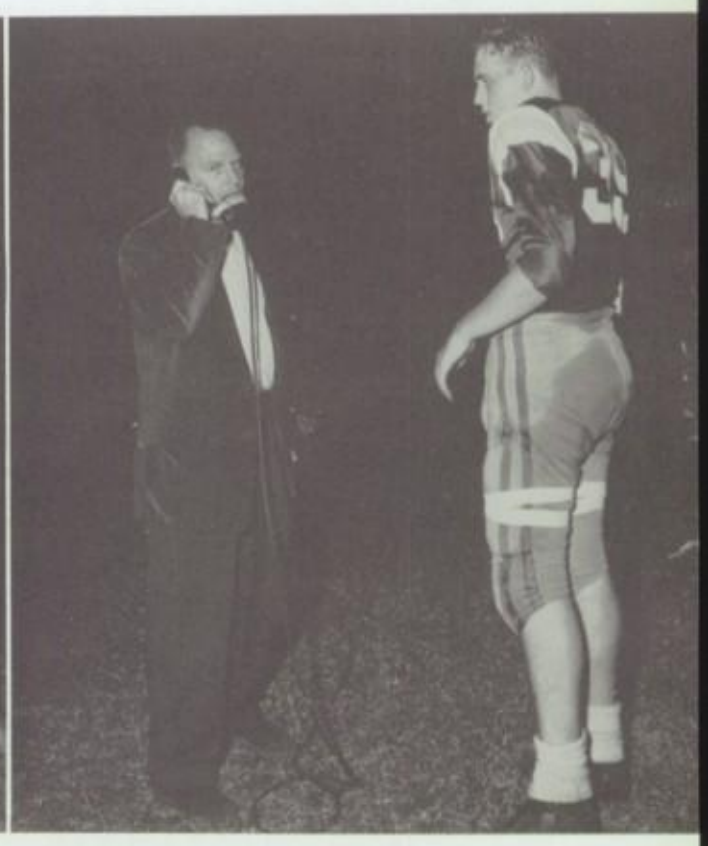
Carrying the ball is Dick Dearworth.

A view of the Eagles' bench.

Bobby Brown (no. 11) runs to tackle a player in the Roger Bacon game.



Bill Gast brings down a Bacon runner as Steve Oppenheimer (no. 29) looks on.



Coach Bailey speaks on the field phone, while Jim Foley awaits instructions.

BASKETBALL

Under a new head coach, Mr. Robert Lunsford, the 1961-1962 Eagle basketballers broke a losing streak extending over three seasons—23 games—and went on to post a 5-16 won-lost mark. Though they won only two league games, the Eagles flew high in the District Tournament, sweeping by their first two opponents before being downed by Central. This year's Eagle squad was actually better than its record indicates, and with a few less mistakes could have been the surprise team of the PHSL.

Watch out for their toes!

CROSS COUNTRY

With what was termed the best record in years, the 1961 Cross Country Team wrote finis to their season. Finishing fourth, third, and third in the first city meets respectively, and fifth in the District Meet, Coach Joseph Koke was rightfully proud of his team. It was obviously a job well done, all the way around.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Upper school G.A.A. consists of ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth-grade girls. On Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week, these girls participate in sports ranging from archery to volleyball.

For each sport there is an interscholastic "playday" in which each of the public high schools is represented. Here, the various schools compete for awards.

Mrs. George keeps the rhythm while the girls march.

Miss Woodruff, you're not going to jump in, are you?

HOCKEY

The first sport on the G.A.A. calendar each year is hockey. During the fourth week of school, teams are formed and captains are appointed. Then the battles begin—Juniors vs. Sophomores, Sophomores vs. Seniors, Seniors vs. Freshmen, and Freshmen vs. Everybody! This year, the Seniors proved to be our best hockey players.

Just a bunch of hockey players.

All those girls after one ball?

Barbara Lynn uses her five feet six inches to advantage and knocks the ball over the net.

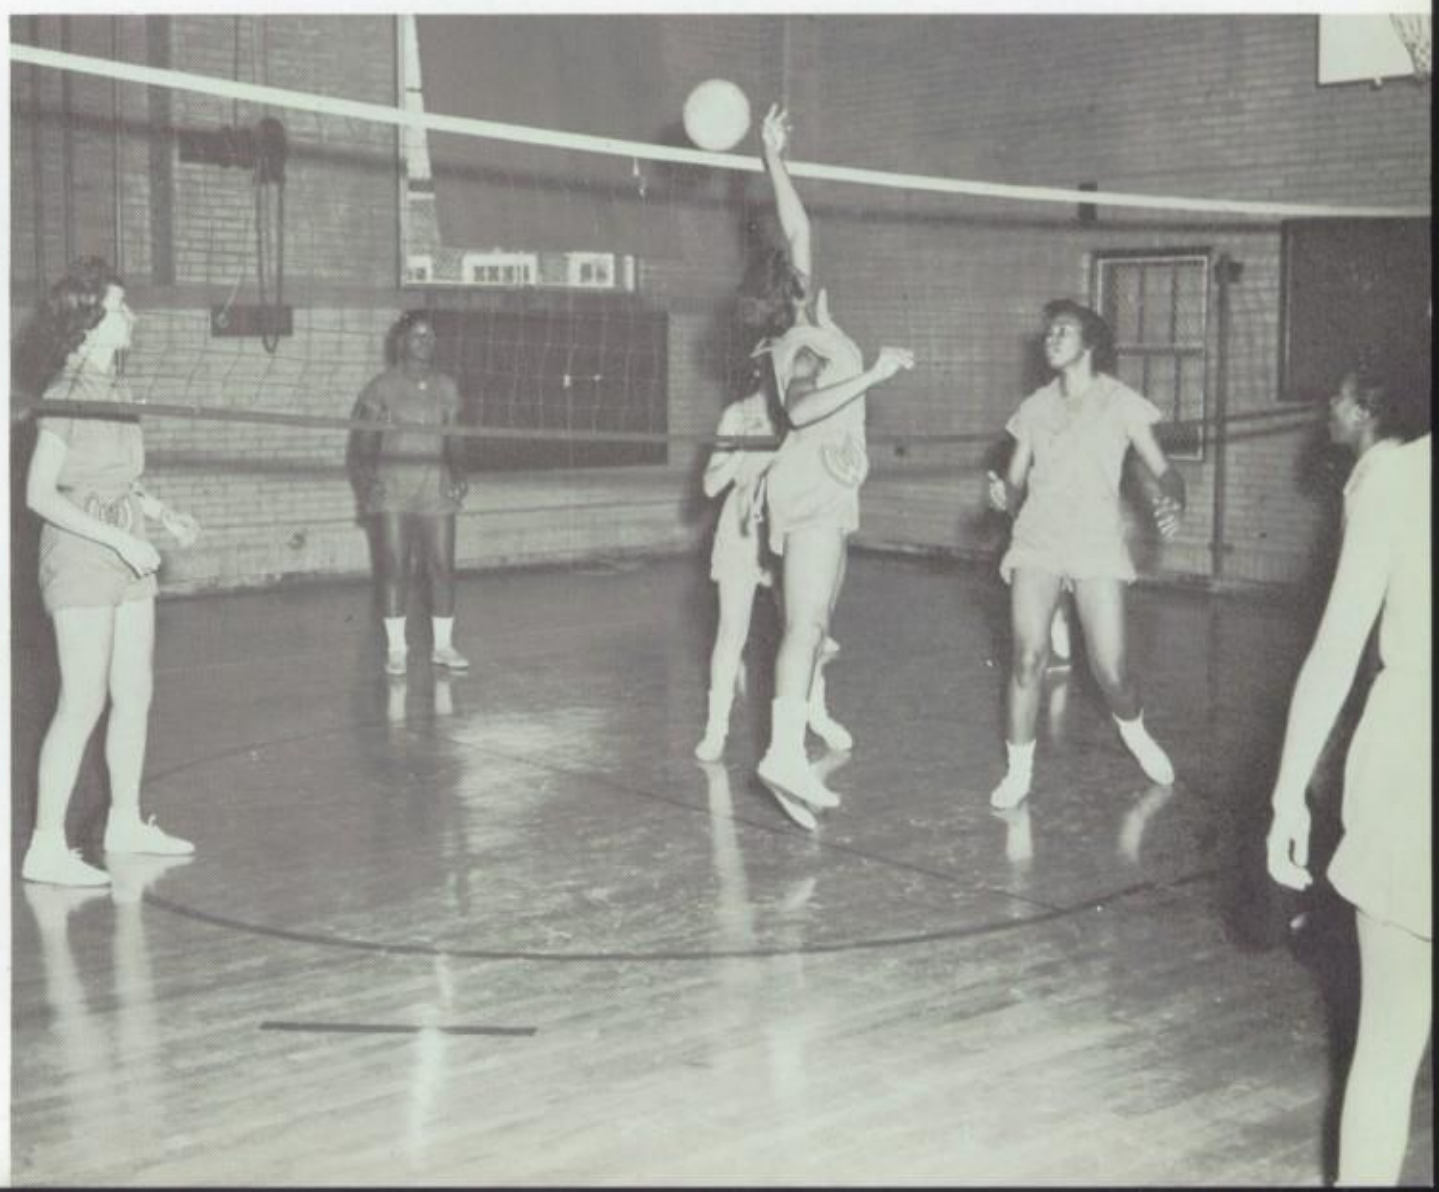
VOLLEYBALL

There's no doubt about it, volleyball is by far the most popular indoor sport at Walnut Hills High School; our proof —everyone of the too-many-to-be-counted girls who came out for it.

There may have been snow on the ground outside, but the gym was always filled with girls on the inside.

The volleyball season lasted from November 27 to December 19. The interscholastic playday was held at Western Hills High School and Central High School on December 15.

Pearl Boyd leaps into the air and scores a point for her team.



Get the ball, Janet!

Juel and Susie jump to see which team gets the ball.

Basketball is fun, but once in a while it gets just a little bit rough.

BASKETBALL

The winning class team—Ernestine Winninger, Betty Nelson, Susie Freiberg, Joan Dreskin, Cynthia Crounse, Juel Webster, Janet Seybert (not shown).

LIFE SAVING TEAM—First Row, Left to Right: N. Nieman, M. Magee, S. Collins, B. Wilson, E. Maxwell, M. Devaux, S. Riger. Second Row: B. Rappoport, M. Fleming, L. Watt, J. Leader, J. Tonkins, D. Timmer, B. Heath, S. Baum, K. Wilson.

One of those girls is bound to catch that ball!

Janet Seybert gets ready to knock in another run for her team.

BASEBALL

"Its a homer!" Can any words sound sweeter to a baseball player? Early in April, baseball season got off to a full swing. Each Tuesday and Thursday the faithful members of the several teams worked at perfecting their techniques.

Manager Janet Seybert assisted Miss Hutch with the coaching.

Christine Preston winds up before pitching.

Sue Radabaugh gets tagged as she slides into home.

Karen Schiro congratulates Reggie for a game well played.

Sue Levinson and Karen Schiro practice for tennis tournament.

Julie and Michele practice holding the racket correctly.

TENNIS

JUNIOR HIGH SOCIAL COMMITTEE

JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

"I remember" is a good phrase because it conjures up thoughts of very pleasant memories when used. My own personal memories include many of my old friends. Although remembering is very pleasant, don't lose sight of the present. Keep in mind that we must live for the future and not the past.

Sincerely,
Michael V. DiSalle
Governor
August 28, 1961

LOWER G. A. A.

Lower school G.A.A. starts the year off with soccer. Soccer is a football game played on a large field with goal posts at each end. A point is scored by kicking the ball through the opponents' goal. Soccer is fun, but it, like all other sports, takes practice.

The game is about to start.

Lynn and Kathy advance toward the ball.

Kathy and Loretta rush forward to guard Sue.

LOW SOCCER

VOLLEYBALL

During the days when the weather wasn't so good outside, the girls kept in shape by playing volleyball inside. Such terms as "spike," "net ball," and "set up" became familiar terms. Good teamwork was a must.

Sharon Ward tiptoes to spike the ball.

BASKETBALL

Basketball is a game of skills—dribbling, passing, and shooting. It is also a game that requires good teamwork. But most of all basketball is a game that is packed full of fun. This year it proved to be one of the favorite sports of the lower school G.A.A.

Did it go in?

BASEBALL

At the first sign of spring, the girls were seen carrying gloves, bats and balls out to the field. Miss Woodruff was always there ready to give coaching whenever it was needed. There were a few days when rain intruded, but the game went on. At the end of the season the girls showed their skills at playday competing against girls of other schools.

THE BUSINESS STAFF

Left to Right. Andrew Hickenlooper, Walter Grayman, Tom Trager

Without the unparalleled support of the student body and our devoted advertisers, patrons and sponsors, the REMEMBRANCER could not have been published. This year's financial staff energetically made the annual an overwhelming financial success. This division is dedicated to those who made this book possible.

ADVERTISING STAFF

Your Own Princess Phone

What teenager wouldn't get excited over having her very own Princess phone. Think what a joy to use a phone that's scarcely bigger than your hand—that feels light as a feather — with a dial that glows softly, lights up brightly whenever you pick up the receiver.

You'll enjoy calls more in your own room on your own Princess phone. And, the monthly charge is so low that you may be able to pay for a Princess extension yourself. For more information, call our business office, 396-9900.

Dear Miss Brown:
I appreciated most highly your letter regarding "Remembrance of Things Past".
I have always been one who, after having been through the past, made decisions that were necessary at the time and looked forward to the future.
I sincerely hope that you will tell your young people that the future is the thing for them to look forward to and that they can only profit by what has happened in the past if they know their history.
Sincerely yours,
Harry Truman

Dear Marianna:
"I remember" is a good phrase because it conjures up thoughts of very pleasant memories when used. My own personal memories include many of my old friends. Although remembering is very pleasant, don't lose sight of the present. Keep in mind that we must live for the future and not the past.
Sincerely,
MICHAEL V. DI SALLE

The past is an old armchair in the attic, the present an uproar with the Beaver boys, the little Colonel, Pollyanna, and Pegeen-my-Heart, but we don't want to be neighbors in the past while the Maxtons are shaking hands with the Marlanes. Let us then be up and doing.
Sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Brown:
Thank you for wanting to include me in the "Remembrancer". This issue sounds like a most fascinating one. I, myself, would not know what to say about looking back on one's own past. As a writer, remembrance is an elemental fact of my craft, and it is a calculated thing. I am sorry that I really cannot say anymore than that on your theme.
Thank you for asking me, anyway.
Sincerely yours,

Dear Marianna,
I hope this story will help you and the "Remembrancer" is a great success!
We had a professor at College of the Pacific who used to say we are the sum of all our pasts. Through the years I have become aware of this truth. Wherever do we rely upon our total experience - as an individual or a man - as much as in the writing - whether it be an improvisation or a jazz theme or a new composition.
Sincerely,

ACCEPTANCES

I owe a great deal to the thinkers of the past. But as for my own past, all I can say is that I am glad it is over. What you learn from your own past is what not to do. But the inspiration of the great men of the past is always available and always important.

Sincerely yours,
Robert M. Hutchins

Dear Miss Brown,

May we sincerely thank you for your letter of June 20, 1961.

In regard to an incident in our past to be used in your High School book, we call to mind a particular time in New York when it seemed to us that the bottom fell out of everything. We were ushered into an appearance that we ourselves knew, or rather felt, we were unprepared to give. Though it was a tremendously unhappy experience, it probably was one of the biggest things to spure one on and make one realize more than ever that if you cannot do a job properly, you cannot expect high results. Be convinced yourself that you can carry it out -- your harvest reflects the sowing.

With all good wishes, and with kind regards,

Sincerely,

Marian Anderson

Dear Miss Brown:

This is in reply to your letter of June 20, 1961 requesting a statement for the Remembrancer.

I thought the enclosed quotation from my book, EDUCATION AND FREEDOM, would be suitable for your purpose. It expresses my feelings on the importance of a good education for our youth. If you do use this quotation, please indicate its source.

...o contribute a few lines for publication in the 1962 REMEMBRANCER in connection with the theme of the yearbook "Remembrance of Things Past."

Each day on my journey to and from my office I pass the National Archives Building on Constitution Avenue here in Washington. Cut into the stone face of one of the entrance columns of that building are the words "What is past is prologue." As I read them each day, I find I mentally add the balance of the quotation: "What to come in yours and my discharge." No words of mine can touch Shakespeare's superb statement of our debt to the past and our obligation to the future.

Dear Miss Brown,

Thank you for your nice letter. You must forgive me if I do not fall in with your flattering suggestion. I am now a very old man and in a different state of health and what little strength I have left I must devote to work that I have on hand.

My dear Marianna:

I very much appreciate your inviting me to participate in your 1962 REMEMBRANCER, and I wish I could accept. Unfortunately, however, I am so very busy at the present time that I cannot undertake anything more.

With many regrets and my warm good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

1962 REMEMBRANCER

DEDICATED TO MR. HAROLD INSKEEP

When to the sessions of sweet silent thought
I summon up remembrance of things past,
I sigh the lack of many a thing I sought
And with old woes new wail my dear time's waste:
Then can I drown an eye, unused to flow,
For precious friends hid in death's dateless night,
And weep afresh love's long since cancel'd woe,
And moan the expense of many a vanish'd sight:
Then can I grieve at grievances foregone,
And heavily from woe to woe tell o'er
The sad account of fore-bemoaned moan,
Which I now pay as if not paid before.
But if the while I think on thee, dear friend,
All losses are restored and sorrows end.
